

Celebrating International Mountain Day
8th. IMD 2015 – Pakistan Open
ROCK CLIMBING COMPETITION
10-11 December 2015

The Adventure Club - Pakistan is dedicated to promote adventure/outdoor healthy activities in Pakistan. Established in 1994, the Club has a vibrant history of diversified activities, however, Rock Climbing is the specialty of the Club.

With its growing popularity, the Club organized lectures and seminars for the promotion of climbing besides conducting training and practice sessions. Moreover, the Club has searched and developed several new sites and developed new routes at several places in the country.

It's worth mentioning that the Club has produced some of the finest male & female climbers to win national championships and to represent Pakistan in international climbing events as well.

While celebrating Visit Pakistan Year 2007 by Ministry of Tourism, the Club organized a Rock Climbing Competition on International Women Day and with one of the most thrilling and challenging adventure activity, a new era of climbing started in Pakistan and the Club included Rock Climbing in its calendar of activities and introduced climbing competitions to mark various international days of importance e.g. International Mountain Day ( IMD ), World Tourism Day ( WTD ) and International Women Day ( IWD ).

The Club started a climbing competition on IMD in 2008, and has organized 7 consecutive yearly competitions on IMD so far. In 2015, with UN designated theme; " Promoting Mountain Products for better livelihoods", the Club organized EIGHTH competition to mark the International Mountain Day 2015.

With an extremely welcoming response from various institutions, clubs and individuals, the participating teams joined from various parts of the country, while during two day's event, scores of people visited to enjoy the thrilling competitions. The Club is grateful for the participation of all climbers who made this event successful by their participation. The Club also especially thanks Mr. Esam Khattak, Managing Director - Ibx Club, the dignitary to grace the evening and to award the position holders, while the Club is honoured for the presence of

Mr. Hassan Asad Sadpara, the only Pakistani to climb 6 eight thousand meters high peaks including Mount Everest & K2. He distributed the awards as well as delivered an inspiring address to encourage youth to participate in healthy adventure activities.

Mr. Tahir Imran Khan, President of The Adventure Club – Pakistan extended his thanks and announced Free One Year Club’s Membership ( worth Rs. 500 ) and offered a Free Training Course ( worth Rs. 4500 ) to all position holders. He also announced the holding of 10th. IWD 2016 – Pakistan Open Sport Climbing Competition, which would complete its 10 years since its inception in 2007 and going to be a mega event, making a history in adventure sports in Pakistan.
